Do your bit for the environment

Rajasthan is a desert with severe and power water scarcity. Use water sparingly. Report leaky faucets. Turn off lights and air-conditioning when you leave your room. Request a PDF

COLONEL'S CAMP PUSHKAR

Colonel's Camp is a 7 acre farm and orchard designed for camping and outdoor activity. It offers majestic, panoramic views of trading activity during the camel fair.

AMENITIES

Comfortable Swiss cottage tents with attached toilets, tribal and cultural dances, local music programs, swimming pool, sand volleyball, baseball and croquet, camel and horse rides, desert safaris.

CAMP ACTIVITIES

Wake up to the dulcet sounds of desert ballads sung by local tribal musicians. Explore the ancient city of Pushkar, home to one of the only Brahma temples in India. Intrepid travelers with a yen for history can explore the myriad smaller temples clustered around the lake: each of these temples is testament to the coming together of two ancient and disparate cultures (Do you know which ones?) Delve through the variety of local artifacts, handicrafts, silver jeweler, and antique furniture in the stores of Pushkar.
